ARTWEEK

PARK COUNTY

Support Art throughout YOUR community

Celebrate Art with Us! The Livingston Depot Center, Danforth Museum of Art, and Livingston Center for Art and Culture are excited to invite you to participate in ArtWeek Park County, a new collaboration designed to bring our community together through art. We're celebrating local artists, providing workshops for all ages, and enhancing the end of the summer tourism season in our beautiful Park County.

IArtWeek's development and its debut year are supported through the Park County Fund for the Arts, a program of the Park County Community Foundation and the Park County Arts Council. The Fund for the Arts is made possible by a generous donation from the JAKET Foundation, recognizing ArtWeek Park County for its potential to bring substantial positive change and improvements to our community. ArtWeek strives to support existing organizations while spurring innovation in the arts—a lofty but achievable goal with your support.

Our aspiration is for ArtWeek to evolve into an annual tradition that draws art enthusiasts from across the globe. While we have sponsorship opportunities available for this inaugural year, we are also eager to explore partnerships that will help sustain and grow ArtWeek in the years to come. Sponsors will benefit from recognition in our marketing materials, at events, and on our website, providing excellent exposure for your business. Joining us as a sponsor is a fantastic way to be part of a special initiative that celebrates creativity while gaining visibility for your business at a level that suits your needs.

We invite you to support community-wide engagement with the arts. Please contact us to discuss supporting this transformative program in this inaugural year or future years.

Sincerely,

Laura Cota

A Countywide Celebration of the Arts

About ArtWeek

ArtWeek Park County is a partnership between the Livingston Center for Art and Culture, the Danforth Museum of Art and the Livingston Depot.

ArtWeek Park County is dedicated to fostering creativity, supporting local talent, and enriching the cultural landscape of Park County.

ArtWeek Park County is an annual event aimed at strengthening the community by engaging with the arts and celebrating its creative legacy.

ArtWeek Park County features signature events like artist lectures, student & adult workshops, and fine art exhibits.

ArtWeek Park County culminates in a live auction of the region's best art.

Auction Details

Showcasing the region's finest art, the inaugural live auction will be held at the Livingston Depot Center on Saturday, September 27th. Renowned auctioneers, Black and Associates, will lead an exciting evening including a riveting and fast paced Live Auction of southwest Montana's best art!

The region's finest artists will showcase new works in glass, oil, watercolor, pastel, photography, sculpture, and mixed media. Visit the Livingston Center for Art and Culture beginning beginning September 9th to preview all the artwork available in the sale. Doors open at 5PM. Cocktails and conversation will be served prior to an artfully catered dinner by Food For Thought Catering featuring locally-sourced menu items. Our Live Auction event will begin at 7:15 PM.
